

MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Hello Sinkut View Family,

It has been a crazy week with a mix warm sunshine, snow, hail, and wind! Please make sure students have gear for all weather.

I am happy to announce that Anne Geddes will be taking over as Principal of Sinkut View starting August 1st. Anne has been the administrator of Mapes Elementary for the last five years; she is excited to rejoin the Sinkut View community.

Our Grade 4, 5, and 6's participated in the District Floor Hockey Playday at EDS, St. Joseph's and the Gospel Chapel. They represented well and had a lot of fun!

With the turn in the weather and conditions outside, our classes are planning to get outdoors more and go on some field trips. If you are wanting to volunteer to be a chaperone for anything, please connect with Stacy about some of the district policies and requirements that need to be met.

Enjoy the rest of the week!

Jason Kadonaga

VANDERHOOF COMMUNITY PITCH-IN

Saturday, April 20, 2024 • 10am - 1pm
At Riverside Park

How does Community Pitch-In Day work?

1. Choose your route at Riverside Park on the day of the event or contact us with any questions at Facebook.com/NechakoWRI.
2. Pick up your bags and gloves from us and get started!
3. Bring full bags back to the park when you're done or leave them on a street corner for later pick up by the District.

When you're finished with your route, come to Riverside Park from 12-1 for complimentary Tim Hortons coffee or hot chocolate and donuts!
