

MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Hello Sinkut View!
I am happy to announce that we have filled our vacant Indigenous Advocate position! Please help me in welcoming Miss Verna Thomas to the Sinkut View Community! She currently has the position at Mapes, as well, so she will be with us on Mondays and Wednesdays. Miss Verna is excited to get to know everyone and be a part of this amazing school.

Today, all of our classes got the chance to take a tour of the RCMP detachment and visit with other first responders for RCMP Appreciation Week. Lots of big smiles and interesting questions were had!

Friday is Share the Love Day where schools across Nechako Lakes School District celebrate diversity and inclusion. Our focus at Sinkut View this year is on Allyship and of course treating others with Kindness, Caring, and Respect. Classes will read a story together and discuss age-appropriate themes of inclusion and kindness.

The school grounds are looking good this week! We have a crew of maintenance staff that has spent a lot of time up here cleaning, clipping, mowing, and sweeping. We also have a large group of students that are on the lookout for garbage and litter (and litterers...) around the yard now that it is clean.

Have an excellent long weekend!

Mr. Jason Kadonaga
