MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Hadih families,

I hope this message finds you well.

Here we are, Halloween and all! This week is sure busy with pumpkin carving tomorrow at 10:45 am until 12 noon and then celebrations on Friday. Just a few reminders about costumes and candy:

1. We love to see your child(ren) dress up on Friday, but please leave any masks, face coverings and weapons/knives at home. These are not allowed at school 😊
2. Students can bring candy on Friday, but AFTER Friday (starting next week) limit candy at school to two pieces a day. Too much sugar is not helpful in learning!

Other than that, I hope you all have a fun filled weekend and enjoy the festivities our town has to offer.

When you come by the school, take a good look at PACs bulletin board in the entrance. It is filled with information you may find useful. Thank you, PAC, for all you do to support our learning activities and community building!

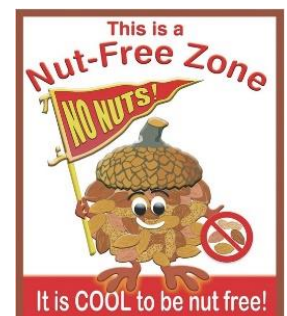

Have a great week. Take many deep breaths.

Take care,
Mia Moutray
Principal
